CARVER-HAW

Iowa hosted first and second round NCAA Tournament games in 2009.

KEYE ARENA

Without question, the University of Iowa's Carver-Hawkeye Arena is one of the finest basketball facilities in the Midwest. Named for the late Roy Carver, a long-time supporter of the University, the arena opened in January 1983.

The arena has hosted NCAA Women's Tournament games 12 times, including first and second round games in 2009.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena also brings in some of the hottest music artists in the country. The Backstreet Boys, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Foo Fighters, Tonic, John Mayer, Elton John and the Goo Goo Dolls are some of the bands that headlined the past few years.

"THE SEPERATE THEATER ROOM IS ALSO A GREAT ADDITION. WE HAVE SO MUCH MORE ROOM TO WATCH FILM. NOT TO MENTION THE AWESOME NEW THEATER-STYLE SEATS WITH OUR LOGO ON THE HEAD REST!"

THE HAWKEYE LOCKER ROOM

The University of Iowa women's locker room was completely renovated and re-opened in the fall of 2011.

The updated locker room doubled in size from 1,200 square feet to 2,400 square feet and includes spacious new lockers, an improved lounge area with leather couches and two 60-inch HD flat screen televisions and a separate theater room with leather chairs and a state-of-the-art video system for film review.

CARVER- HAWKEYE ARENA RENOVATION

NEW PRACTICE FACILITY AND STATE-OF-THE-ART WEIGHT ROOM

The $43 million addition and revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye was completed in August of 2011. Additions include a practice facility immediately north of the arena, along with a brand new, state-of-the-art fitness and weight-training space.

The new, air-conditioned practice facility will have two full-size collegiate courts and is equipped with a Robbins MVP (maximum vibration protection) flooring system.

Iowa's new weight room will expand from 1,800 square feet to 11,000 square feet. It will have brand new PowerLift racks, cardio equipment and a 40-yard turf/agility sprint lane.

Keys will not be necessary for the practice facility or locker room, as electronic access is being installed. Student-athletes simply need to place their palm on the reader by the door to gain access.

"THE IMPROVEMENTS TO CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA ARE AMAZING. IT'S SO NICE TO BE ABLE TO GO INTO A PRACTICE FACILITY AND SHOOT WHENEVER WE WANT. THE IMPROVEMENTS MADE OUR HOME FACILITY EVEN BETTER."

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

THE HAWKEYES STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of this program consists mainly of two components. The first is to continually develop a scientifically sound program that will maximize strength, power and explosiveness in order to allow the athlete to get the utmost out of their genetic potential, and to reduce the chance of injury. This will primarily be accomplished through the use of ground based free weight exercises and the progressive incorporation of functional movements and plyometrics. The second is to establish a culture which will develop the discipline, character and mental toughness within each athlete and team as a whole so that they are able to make the sacrifices in their training, leave their comfort zone and develop a Championship ATTITUDE. This will encourage them to make the most out of every situation and opportunity given to them in athletics, so that they might know what it is to be fully committed to something in at least one area of their life. When these two converge, they are not only able to reach their full potential, they become champions on and off the playing field.

IOWA HAWKEYES ACADEMICS

ATHLETICS LEARNING CENTER

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in September of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to help them with their educations.

The Athletics Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000 square foot facility that provides a computer center, study areas, classes and meeting places for all Hawkeye student-athletes.

The Learning Center features an auditorium that converts into two classrooms, separate study rooms for under and upper-class student-athletes that feature 28 study carrels, a computer lab, five tutorial rooms, the book loan repository, office space for Iowa's Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

"I THINK THAT THE SUCCESS THAT WE'VE HAD IN THE CLASSROOM SHOWS IOWA'S COMMITMENT TO THE STUDENT-ATHLETE. WITH LINDSEY MEDER BEING ONE OF THE TOP-FIVE ACADEMIC PLAYERS IN AMERICA TWO STRAIGHT YEARS (2001-02) AND HAVING 48 DIFFERENT ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN HONORS THE LAST 11 SEASONS SPEAKS VOLUMES ABOUT OUR COMMITMENT TO ACADEMICS. OUR PLAYERS HAVE PROVEN THAT THEY CAN DO BOTH AT A SCHOOL LIKE IOWA. THEY CAN ACHIEVE SUCCESS BOTH ACADEMICALLY AND ATHLETICALLY."

COUNSELING, ACADEMIC MONITORING, EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING, SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION, TUTORING, COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES, AND CAREER EXPLORATION ARE ALL PART OF THE SERVICES AVAILABLE TO THESE STUDENT-ATHLETES."

GARY BARTA

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

On behalf of the University of Iowa Department of Athletics, I'd like to welcome you to another exciting season of Hawkeye women's basketball. I am thrilled to start another campaign under our terrific head coach, Lisa Bluder.

Lisa has done a tremendous job leading the Hawkeye program over a long period of time. She is a class act, both on and off the court. Her student-athletes exemplify what we mean when we say "Today's Hawkeyes are Tomorrow's Leaders."

Her student-athletes excel in the classroom, on the court and in the community. She stands for what's good in intercollegiate sport, and specifically, for Hawkeye Athletics. Not only do we have a very competitive team on the court, we have coaches and student-athletes who are looked upon as role models throughout the University and surrounding communities.

Whether it's on the court in front of our great fans in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, or on the road, we know the Hawkeyes will be competing for championships every season. Please plan to join us for what promises to be an exciting year of Hawkeye women's basketball!

SALLY MASON

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA PRESIDENT

Welcome to a new season of Iowa women's basketball! My husband Ken and I are enthusiastic fans and can't wait to cheer the Iowa Black and Gold on to victory. We take great pride in this team and its coaches. These Hawkeyes truly embody the winning spirit on the court, in the classroom and in the community.

We are proud of our rich tradition in women's basketball! The University of Iowa has established itself as one of the most decorated programs in the Big Ten and nation. Coach Bluder has led her team to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including the last four years in a row.

Under Coach Bluder's leadership, Iowa has posted eight Big Ten first-division finishes and advanced to the post-season 10 times. Bluder, who is the dean of women's basketball coaches in the Big Ten, exemplifies the type of coach this University is all about. Named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times and WBCA Regional Coach of the Year twice, Coach Bluder and the Hawkeyes enjoy the national spotlight. Our future looks as bright as our recent past.

Lisa Bluder and her loyal coaching staff's level of commitment to her players is unparalleled. The program has a long-standing reputation for developing leaders on and off the court. I'm proud of the program's academic excellence and volunteer efforts around the Eastern Iowa community.

I am proud to be a Hawkeye. I hope you'll join me for another thrilling season of Hawkeye women's basketball at Carver-Hawkeye Arena!

A TOTAL PROGRAM

The men's track and field team won the Big Ten Outdoor Championship and also finished eighth at the indoor NCAA championships.

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2010-11.

Sixty-four Hawkeyes earned all-conference accolades, while 44 were recognized as All-Americans. Hawkeye student-athletes excelled in the classroom as well with 172 earning Academic All-Big Ten laurels. Thirty-four Hawkeyes were honored by the Big Ten Conference with the Distinguished Scholar Award. The graduation rate of Iowa's student-athletes has improved in each of the past 10 years and has consistently ranked above the graduation rate of all UI students.

Iowa's men's cross country, men's and women's tennis, and softball teams were recognized by the NCAA for their high academic marks. The four teams earned Public Recognition Awards, based on their most recent multi-year Academic Progress Rates.

The UI closed the 2010-11 athletics year with a bang, establishing a school record in total points scored in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup. The Hawkeyes accumulated 510 points in the competition that awards points based on each institution's finish in national championship competition in up to 20 total sports (10 women's and 10 men's).

The support of their efforts and attendance by Hawkeye fans ranks among the best across the country.

The 2010 Iowa Hawkeye football team won its school-record third consecutive bowl game with a thrilling 27-24 come-from-behind victory over Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl.

While the Hawkeyes compete with the best in the nation in a variety of sports, Iowa boasts some of the most impressive athletic facilities in the nation, operated by one of the most respected departments.

Several new projects have come to completion on the Iowa campus. Some of the latest additions to the UI campus include the completion of the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, which houses the swimming and diving teams, and the state-of-the-art $7 million rowing boathouse. In addition to the brand new swimming and rowing facilities, the Roy G. Karro Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center completed construction in recent years. Furthermore, the UI completed a $47 million Carver-Hawkeye Arena renovation project in the summer of 2011.

Kinnick Stadium received a major upgrade and renovation that was completed just prior to the 2006 season. The $89 million project included the replacing of the south end zone stands and building of a four-level press box that houses 47 guest suites. New scoreboards, video walls, concession stands and rest rooms were also part of the project.

Iowa student-athletes have been recognized as All-Americans in their sport on 312 occasions during the past 19 years, including 44 this past season.

During the 2010-11 athletic year, the Hawkeyes continued their trend of success on the playing fields and in academic pursuits. Below are some examples of recent Hawkeye success.

The Hawkeye wrestling team continued its dominance on the mat, finishing third at the NCAA Championships. Iowa has claimed 23 national championships, including three in the last four years, and 34 Big Ten titles. Five Hawkeyes earned All-American accolades en route to the team's third place finish.

Iowa football continued its stellar play, finishing in the upper division of the Big Ten for the ninth time in the last 10 years. The Hawkeyes capped their season with a thrilling 27-24 come-from-behind victory over Missouri in the Insight Bowl. The win was Iowa's third straight bowl victory, a school record.

Iowa's field hockey team has won the Big Ten Tournament championship three of the last five years and finished third nationally, advancing all the way to the Final Four in 2008. A total of 41 Hawkeyes have garnered All-Big Ten accolades under head coach Tracey Griesbaum.

The women's basketball team had another outstanding season, finishing third in the league and advancing to the NCAA Tournament. Lisa Bluder, who is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year and two-time Regional Coach of the Year, coached Kachine Alexander and Jaime Printy to honorable mention All-America status. Alexander was also tabbed the Premier Player of the Year. Bluder has guided Iowa to eight first division finishes in her 11 years and has taken her program to eight NCAA Tournaments, including four straight.

The men's track and field team finished eighth in the nation at the indoor national championships and won the outdoor Big Ten title in 2011. Coach Larry Wiecek was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, while numerous Hawkeyes earned all-league and All-America honors.

Head coach Mark Hankins continued to have his men's golfers play at a high level. The Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Championships for the second time in three years and tied for 10th nationally – a school-record finish. Vince India was named the Big Ten Player of the Year and earned the prestigious Les Bolstad Trophy, which goes to the male golfer with the lowest stroke average in the Big Ten.

The men's basketball team had its first season under head coach Fran McCaffery. Hawkeye fans flocked to Carver-Hawkeye Arena to watch the Black and Gold. Attendance increased 20 percent, which ranked fifth-best in the country.

The aforementioned list of team and individual accomplishments are just a sampling of the recent excellence achieved in Iowa City.

Whether it's the top-notch athletic or academic performances, the outstanding community and fan support, or the impressive facilities, it's easy to understand why Iowa fans everywhere truly believe, "It's great to be a Hawkeye."

THE IOWA CITY COMMUNITY

Iowa City is a diverse, highly cosmopolitan community of 60,000 set in the natural scenic beauty of Iowa's rolling hills and woods along the tree-lined banks of the Iowa River. Iowa City has all the art galleries, ethnic foods, historic architecture and vibrant atmosphere of a much larger city, but with the compactness and friendly feeling of a small town.

As a place to live, Iowa City keeps winning awards and accolades - Named one of the 10 most enlightened towns in the country by Utne Reader, listed in the book The 100 Best Small Art Towns in America and selected the number-one place to live in the nation by Editor & Publisher magazine.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 12 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

The Big Ten Conference has held a league tournament every year since 1995, with every tournament but one being held in Indianapolis.

Fans have embraced the Big Ten Women's Tournament. Nearly 36,000 fans watched in 2008 as Purdue captured the tournament title marked by close games and stellar individual performances.

Conseco Fieldhouse has played host to the conference tournament the last 10 consecutive years and 11 overall. The Big Ten announced in 2012 that the conference tournament will rotate between Indianapolis (2012, 2014, 2016) and the Sears Centre in Hoffman Estates, Ill. (2013, 2015).

BIG TEN/ACC Challenge

HAWKEYE TRAVEL

The Hawkeyes travel in style, whether it's on the road or in the air.

For shorter trips, the Hawkeyes travel in a spacious Windstar bus, complete with satellite television, DVD players and WiFi internet connection.

The majority of Hawkeye flights are on USA Jet, an airline with spacious leather seating that gives the players an opportunity to relax and study. Most trips are charter flights, which means no airport lines and non-stop flights to and from the nearby Eastern Iowa Airport.

HAWKEYE INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

During the summer of 2003, 2007 and 2011 the entire Iowa basketball team and staff traveled overseas. Iowa toured Prague, Bratislava, Vienna and Paris in 2011, playing three exhibition games on the 12-day trip.

In 2007, the Hawkeyes were in Greece for 11 days, competing against the Greek National Team three times and visiting Thessaloniki, Athens and the Greek Islands.

Iowa toured the beautiful cities of Rome, Vatican City, Florence, Venice and Lake Como on a 12-day trip in 2003 that included four exhibition games.

Not only do the Hawkeyes play in front of thousands of fans in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, but the Iowa women's basketball program also travels to exciting destinations to play in challenging tournaments. Over the past 12 years, Iowa has competed in holiday tournaments in Alaska, Bahamas, California (three times), Cancun (3), Hawaii, New York, Florida (2), Massachusetts and South Carolina. The Hawkeyes head back to the Bahamas in November this season.

NIKE EQUIPMENT

University of Iowa equipment and apparel provided by NIKE.

University of Iowa women's basketball equipment and apparel is provided by NIKE. The Hawkeyes have four uniform choices: Black, White, Gold and Pink.

The Hawkeyes take the court every day knowing they are equipped with the latest in design and technology in their NIKE apparel, and the most up-to-date equipment available in college basketball.

HAWKEYE BASKETBALL CAMPS

BASKETBALL CAMP

The Iowa Girls' Basketball Camp gives young basketball players the opportunity to learn from the Hawkeyes during the summer. Held annually in early June, Coach Bluder and her staff lead instruction in all facets of the game. Campers are able to stay in the residence halls and experience what campus life at Iowa is about. Camp is also a time for young Hawkeyes to meet new friends, and build life-long relationships.

The Iowa Girls' Basketball Elite Camp is also available for those who are willing to take their game to the next level.

For more information, contact the Iowa Sports Camps office at (319) 335-7961, or visit www.iowasportscamps.com.

HANNAH DRAXTEN

STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH

"I had always heard about how good the Iowa Women's Basketball program was. After visiting, I was fortunate to experience the University and community first hand. Coach Bluder and her staff are awesome and all the girls are great! It is such a family atmosphere. We work hard, but at the same time we have a lot of fun! The fan support here is amazing and it is exciting to play in front of a crowd that loves Iowa athletics so much!"

THEAIRRA TAYLOR

REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE

"Growing up in Minnesota, I'll admit I didn't know a lot about the University of Iowa. But after attending a game in Carver-Hawkeye Arena and walking around campus, I instantly fell in love with the coaches, community and family here in the Hawkeye Nation. I'm proud to say I am a Hawkeye!"

KELLY KREI

SENIOR

"I grew up a Hawkeye and being able to wear the Black and Gold has always been a dream of mine. My visits to Iowa only reinforced my desire after being able to witness, first hand, the chemistry between the team and the coaches. All of the coaches were very enthusiastic and I couldn't wait to get a chance to play in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in front of so many loyal Hawkeye fans. It's great to be a Hawkeye!"

WHAT HAWKEYES ARE SAYING

MORGAN
JUNIOR

"The University of Iowa was perfect for me because it included the family atmosphere I had been looking for, along with the academics I had been craving. The coaches are so personable and truly care about my life, both on and off the court. My teammates are just the icing on the cake. They really make it feel like I'm home and that this is where I belong. I am very happy I chose the University of Iowa, and I know that in my heart I am a Hawkeye for life."

TRISHA NESBITT
JUNIOR

"The coaching staff and the team were the two main things that attracted me to Iowa. The coaches are more than just a coach to you. Right away you can tell that they are amazing people and really genuinely care about each one of us as people."

THE HAWKEYE FAMILIES

"We are happy that our daughter has found a school and an extended family that she loves. The staff and coaches at the University of Iowa are exactly the way they were during the recruiting process. As parents, you want to know that your child will grow mentally and spiritually as a person. Even though Thea has been there for just a short time, we can already see the growth. We feel blessed that she has found such a great second home and family."

THEODORE & MICHELLE TAYLOR

"There is truth in the cliché, 'God works in mysterious ways.' Being lifelong Ames residents would make us unlikely candidates to become Hawkeye fans, and even more unlikely candidates to encourage our daughter to become a Hawkeye. After meeting the coaching staff, players and some of the other recruits and their families, there is no mystery why we would want our daughter to be a Hawkeye! In fact, our whole family has converted to being proud Hawkeye fanatics! Go Hawkeyes!"

TROY AND PAM NESBITT

"We first visited the University of Iowa and attended a Hawkeyes women's game when Hannah was in ninth grade. Right away we all knew this was the place we would like her to end up. We really liked Iowa City and the Iowa campus. More importantly, we thought the coaching staff and team were extremely caring and it was the kind of family atmosphere we wanted our daughter in, especially living seven hours away. We loved Carver and the great support of the fans and are very proud to be a part of the Iowa Hawkeye women's basketball tradition."

BRIAN & LORI DRAXTEN

"As parents of Kamille, we are very proud that Coach Bluder and her staff invited her to be a part of their successful program. From the first time we stepped on campus we felt like we belonged and everyone we met was honest and genuine. We feel very comfortable with Kamille being a part of the Hawkeye tradition and also the excitement of the Big Ten atmosphere."

CHRIS & KARLA WAHLIN

"As residents of Iowa City we've been fortunate to have had the opportunity to closely follow the Iowa women's basketball program through the years and couldn't be more proud of our daughter's choice to become an Iowa Hawkeye. Every time we visited, it reinforced what we already knew about Coach Bluder, her staff and the genuine integrity of the Iowa women's program. We've witnessed time and time again the caring the coaches and staff showed toward the women as both athletes and students."

BRIAN & COLLEEN KREI

"It brings our family great pride to have Megan wear the Black and Gold uniform and be a part of Coach Bluder's very successful program. Despite Megan's unique situation in joining the team, the coaching staff and teammates welcomed her with open arms and made her feel a real sense of team unity and belonging. All three of our children found a home at the University of Iowa, not only for the academic excellence it provided, but also for the opportunity to be a student-athlete and experience the excitement of being a Hawkeye! We can think of no other place Megan would rather be."

RICK AND COLLEEN CONSIDINE

"We are thrilled that Jaime is part of the Iowa women's basketball program. Jaime committed to Iowa at a very young age, and by the time she got to campus, she had very high expectations. Every aspect of college life at Iowa completely surpassed those expectations. Coach Bluder and her staff are not only great coaches and teachers of the game, but they are also genuinely engaged in the future of their players. From coaches, to facilities, to fans, to academics, it's a wonderful program that offers fantastic community, growth, and opportunity."

JEFF AND KELLY PRINTY

We were so excited when Jade chose the University of Iowa. We still have Jade's fourth grade journal, where she wrote that she was going to play basketball for the Hawkeyes when she grew up. Jade's step-dad, James Moses, was also blessed to be a Hawkeye basketball player. The support of the U of I fans and the community is just amazing, and continues to be, even years after graduation.

We love Coach Bluder and the entire coaching staff. They are nothing but genuine and great role models for our daughter.

CONSENSUS FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Michelle Edwards (1984-88)

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Michelle Edwards is one of the most decorated players in Iowa women's basketball history. The 5-9 guard, nicknamed "Ice", amassed a career record of 102-22 from 1984-1988. During her four years, Edwards led the Hawkeyes to three NCAA Tournament appearances and two Big Ten titles. In 1988, she was named the Champion Products National Player of the Year, the highest honor in women's collegiate basketball. Edwards garnered several other honors that year including being named a Kodak all-American, a Naismith all-American, a USBWA all-American, the Big Ten Player of the Year, and the University of Iowa Athlete of the Year. In her senior season, Edwards also led Iowa to its first ever national number one ranking, along with a record of 29-2 overall and 17-1 in the Big Ten. She paced the Hawkeyes with an average of 20 points per game, 4.8 rebounds per game, 4.5 assists per game, and 2.9 steals per game. The three-time first team all-Big Ten selection is the only Hawkeye to have her jersey retired (No. 30). Edwards ranks high in several Iowa statistical categories, including second in career assists (431), third in career scoring (1,821), and third in career steals (235). She also ranks second among single season scoring leaders (621) and is tied for first in assists in a single game (12). Edwards played in the National Olympic Festival in 1985 and was a member of the U.S. Select Team in 1986. In 1991, she was part of the United States Pan American Team, and she also competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in 1988 and 1992. Upon graduation, Edwards played professionally in Italy for nine seasons before joining the WNBA during its inaugural year in 1997. She then spent three seasons with the Cleveland Rockers and two seasons with the Seattle Storm.

Franthea Price (1986-90)

Franthea Price played for the Hawkeyes from 1986-1990, and in her senior season she became the second Kodak all-American in school history. The four-year starter from River Rouge, Michigan, had an impressive career at Iowa, which began with her being named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1987. Price was named to the first team all-Big Ten in 1988 and 1990, and she was named second team all-Big Ten in 1989. In her senior year, Price earned the honor of Big Ten Player of the Year and led the conference in scoring with 19.8 points per game. The 5-9 forward led the Hawkeyes in several statistical categories that year including scoring (21.2), rebounding (7.1), steals (2.9), and three-point field goals (47). A consistent contributor, Price scored in double figures in 34 of her last 35 games. She holds the school record for career steals with 321, and is tied for first for most steals in a single game with nine. Price also ranks fifth in career scoring (1,742), third in career assists (387), and eighth in career rebounds (726). Outside of Iowa, Price was a member of the U.S. World Junior National Team in 1986 and competed in the National Olympic Festival in 1985 and 1986. In 1987, Price won a gold medal as part of the United States William R. Jones Cup team, and she was a member of the United States Select team in 1989. Price also competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in 1988. After finishing her career at Iowa, Price played professionally in Spain for several years before joining the WNBA Sacramento Monarchs in 1998.

Toni Foster (1989-93)

A 6-1 forward from Chicago, Illinois, Toni Foster was named a Kodak all-American in 1993 and was a finalist for Champion Player of the Year. Foster played for the Hawkeyes from 1989-1993, and led the team in both scoring and rebounding for three consecutive years, a feat accomplished only once previously. A three-time first team all-Big Ten selection, Foster was named the Big Ten Player of the Year in 1993. She was also named the 1993 SportsChannel Player of the Year. During her senior season, Price led Iowa in scoring (15.7), rebounding (8.2), and blocked shots (1.3). She collected 27 double-doubles during her illustrious career, including nine in her senior year. In Iowa's career statistical categories, Foster ranks second in both rebounds (887) and blocks (145). She also ranks sixth in scoring (1,606) and ninth in steals (167). Foster competed in the National Olympic Festival in 1987 and 1991. When the WNBA was formed in 1997, Foster was the seventh overall pick and was selected by the Phoenix Mercury. She spent two seasons with the Mercury before joining the Seattle Storm in 1999 by way of an expansion draft.

Thirty-four different numbers have been worn by the Hawkeyes throughout the years. Michelle Edwards (# 30) is the only Hawkeye to have her jersey retired. Incoming freshmen will be wearing the following numbers: Melissa Dixon (#21), Samantha Logic (#22), Kathryn Reynolds (#33), Virginia Johnson (#34) and Bethany Doolittle (#51). Only two basketball numbers have never been worn by an Iowa player (# 00 and # 53).
